

Rocking Duke Diary Dates

'Blues Abuse'

Welcome to our second newsletter. If this is the first time you've received a copy please accept our apologies but we are extending our distribution.

The Duke is quickly establishing itself as the premiere music venue for the Elham valley. 'Blues Abuse' recently performed for the fourth time and are fast becoming our resident band of choice. So too K D's jazz band have performed several times if you prefer this type of music. We've also had 'Maggie's Engine', 'The Very Big Penguin Band, and more recently, 'The Culprits'. And if live music isn't your thing we've also had a sell-out quiz night. Either way we aim to please! So check our 'Diary' section for forthcoming events, and don't forget to book in advance; many of these things sell out.

'The Culprits'

No smoke without Fire

We now have an outdoor smoking area in the corner of the courtyard just behind the main building. It's nicely sheltered, has a roof and PIR-activated infra-red heating. We'll be putting some new furniture in soon too.

We're still working to improve facilities for our smoking customers and suggestions are always welcome. Check it out now.

Monday 10th December - Quiz Night with a difference. Tables of 6 - £6/head to include buffet. We had a full house last time so book your table now! Limited to 9 teams.
